

MIKE LOW

One Step

Mike Low's brand-new single "ONE STEP" speaks about shattered love, getting back up one step, one step at a time and everything will be just fine. He shares how he has lost and re-found his own center, feeling self-love and love for the people who matter the most to him. "Come back to the middle, middle, love me just a little, little" a hymn of love and hope.

Mike Low is an American/Swiss singer-songwriter and performer with Sicilian heritage. His passion for life and his emotions shine through every one of his songs. Mike Low loves love. An international musician, healer and free-spirit wedding ceremony leader he accompanies individuals and couples in expressing their unique love and creating union with love. On stage he is a beacon of light, love, and unity for a bright future.

Mike is a highly experienced artist on his third single preceded by two hits "Lonely" and "Can You Feel The Beat", which have received great ratings and appreciation in Europe with millions of streams in all stores. The new single "One Step" confirms Mike Low's rich sound and international flavour. It was created in Italy, Switzerland and London. A production by M.C. Music Records, which always sees the presence of the well-known producer Marco Camasso. The new music video of "One Step" was shot in Italy by a very talented young director "Mario Miccione". He and his team were able to amplify the beauty of the song with their cinematic pictures.

The new single will be promoted in all European countries including Italy by P&G Promotion Pietro Giannetta. Of course, Mike Low will also tour Italy. He is currently preparing the 2023 Tour with his band.

The single "ONE STEP" will be released on November 11th internationally in all stores distributed by M.C. Music Records and Ingrooves (Universal)
